

Holocaust Memory and Antisemitism in Central and Eastern Europe. Comparative Issues, Bucharest, Publishing House of the “Elie Weisel” National Institute for the Study of the Holocaust in Romania, 2008.

Contents

Opening session

Introductory Remarks 9
MIHAIL E. IONESCU, Director of “Elie Wiesel” Institute for the Study of the Holocaust in Romania

Opening Speech 13
OLAF MALCHOW, Chief of Juridical Section,
German Embassy to Bucharest

Session I: Holocaust Memory - A Means to Fight Antisemitism

Measures for Combating Negationism and Nationalist Extremism in Germany 19
WILLIAM TOTOK (Germany)

Reflections on the Historic Background of Antisemitism in Eastern Europe. The Legacy of Communism and Holocaust Denial 47
ARNO LUSTIGER (Germany)

Session II: Holocaust Memory and Antisemitism in Central and Eastern Europe after 1990

Political Cleavages and Antisemitism in Hungary 67
GYORGY G. MARKUS (Hungary)

Poles and Jews during the Second World War 87
ANDRZEJ ZBIKOWSKI (Poland)

Erinnerung und Erinnerungsarbeit in Ungarn Einige
historische Aspekte 101
SZITA SZABOLCS (Hungary)

Session III: Holocaust Memory and Antisemitism in Romania after 1990

Holocaust Representation in Transitional
Romania: An Updated Motivational Typology 117
MICHAEL SHAFIR (Romania)

Romano Samudaripen – Roma Deportation to Transnistria – A Survival Lesson beyond Tragedy 173

DELIA GRIGORE (Romania)

Session IV : How to Fight Negationism and Antisemitism?

Combating Antisemitism through Education 187
CHAVA BARUCH (Israel)

The Holocaust as Subject of Law 195
ALEXANDRU FLORIAN (Romania)