Call for Papers: Holocaust. Studii și cercetări (Holocaust. Study and Research)

Deadline: June 30, 2020

Holocaust. Studii și cercetări (Holocaust. Study and Research) is an annual peer-reviewed scientific journal that publishes papers circumscribing the domains of Holocaust history and memory, including studies on antisemitism, antigypsism, discrimination, racism. The journal has been edited and published by “Elie Wiesel” National Institute for the Study of the Holocaust in Romania since 2009. Scholars from different disciplines engaged in the study of the Holocaust: history, sociology, political sciences, philosophy etc are invited to submit.

The journal is now seeking papers for its upcoming issue in 2020. Although our particular interest is in studies based on archival evidence and oral history sources that address primarily the Romanian context, the journal will publish also articles that consider the broader European or global context.

Holocaust. Studii și cercetări. (Holocaust. Study and Research) Journal is accepting papers between 9,000 and 12,000 words (including notes and references), edited in Times New Roman, font size 12 and 1.5 lines spacing. Spelling, figures and notes must follow the indication in the Notes for contribution presented below. They can be written in English, French or German, yet priority will be given to papers written in English.

Your submission should be accompanied by the following information:

- name and surname of the author(s)
- institution and position held
- short bio-bibliography and contact information (max. 6 lines)
- abstract, should describe the main arguments and conclusions of the article (max. 250 words),
- keywords (max. 5)
- bibliography

Please send your submissions in Word format to revista@inshr-ew.ro, by June 30, 2020, midnight CET.

Holocaust. Studii și cercetări (Holocaust. Study and Research) is indexed by CLARIVATE ANALYTICS: Web of Science Core Collection – Emerging Source Citation Index, rated by Romanian National Research Council as B category publication and it is covered by CEEOL and EBSCO academic databases.

We do not accept articles that have already been published or are scheduled for publication elsewhere, in both printed and online formats.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Spelling

Use antisemite, antisemitic. Capitalise North, South, East and West when used globally but use northern, western, south-eastern etc. Use per cent rather than percent or %. Hyphenate 'post-war' and 'post-memory'. We prefer to use the '-ize/-ization' ending for words such as organize, marginalization. Use First World War/Second World War not World War I/II.

Please also note the following points:

1. Hyphenated titles are capitalized in both parts, i.e. Vice-President.
2. For geographical locations, caps are only used if it is a defined geographical area, e.g. South Africa, but western Europe.
3. Brand names are capitalized, but not put in inverted commas.
4. For institutions, use upper case if it is an institution, i.e. the Roman Catholic Church, Parliament, but 'a church' (building), parliamentarians. Use upper case for 'the Church' and 'the State' when describing the institution.
5. Political parties are capitalized, but schools of political thought are not, i.e. the Labour Party, the Conservative government, but communism, fascism, conservatism, socialism (except Nazism, which should be capitalized).

Figures

Dates should be given in the form 7 December 1998; 1994–98 and the 1990s.

Numbers should be spelled out from one to ten then given as numerals.

Notes

Bibliographic citations are provided in short notes (footnotes), supplemented by a list of references which includes all works cited in the notes.
