Call for Papers: Holocaust. Studii și cercetări (Holocaust. Study and Research) Journal

Deadline: June 30, 2017

Full call to follow

Holocaust. Studii și cercetări (Holocaust. Study and Research) is an annual peer-reviewed scientific journal dedicated to the publication of academic and scientific research papers on subjects like Holocaust, Anti-Semitism, xenophobia, discrimination etc. “Elie Wiesel” National Institute for Study of the Holocaust in Romania is editing and publishing this journal since 2009. This publication comprises studies and articles in the fields of history, sociology, political sciences, and philosophy. Holocaust. Study and Research is the first scientific journal in Romania having the following main purposes: to introduce the results of systematic research on archival documents, testimonies, etc. to the intellectual space, to include the Romanian research on these subjects on the international arena, to offer complementary material to the academic environment and to supply continuous support to research efforts in this area.

The journal is now seeking papers for its upcoming issue in 2017. Our particular interest is on archival and testimonies research papers, case studies and book reviews that address these issues primarily in the Romanian context, but also the European one.

Holocaust. Studii și cercetări. (Holocaust. Study and Research) Journal is accepting articles between 9,000 and 12,000 words (including notes and references), edited in Times New Roman, font size 12 and 1.5 lines spacing. Spelling, figures and notes must follow the indication in the Notes for contribution presented below. The articles can be written in Romanian, English, French or German, yet priority will be given to articles written in English.

Your submission should be accompanied by the following information:

- name and surname of the author(s)
- institution and position held
- short (max. 6 lines) bio-bibliography and contact information
- abstract (max. 250 words), which should describe the main arguments and conclusions of the article
- keywords (max. 5)
- bibliography

Please send your submissions in Word format to office@inshr-ew.ro, by June 30, 2017, midnight CET.

Holocaust. Studii și cercetări (Holocaust. Study and Research) is indexed by the European Reference Index for the Humanities and Social Sciences - ERIH Plus, rated by Romanian National Research Council as B category publication and it is covered by CEEOL and EBSCO academic databases.

We will not accept articles that have already been published or are scheduled for publication elsewhere, in both printed and online formats.

Notes for contributors

Spelling

Use antisemite, antisemitic. Capitalise North, South, East and West when used globally but use northern, western, south-eastern etc. Use per cent rather than percent or %. Hyphenate 'post-war' and 'post-memory'. We prefer to use the '-ize/-ization' ending for words such as organize, marginalization. Use First World War/Second World War not World War I/II.

Please also note the following points:

1. Hyphenated titles are capitalized in both parts, i.e. Vice-President.
2. For geographical locations, caps are only used if it is a defined geographical area, e.g. South Africa, but western Europe.
3. Brand names are capitalized, but not put in inverted commas.
4. For institutions, use upper case if it is an institution, i.e. the Roman Catholic Church, Parliament, but 'a church' (building), parliamentarians. Use upper case for 'the Church' and 'the State' when describing the institution.
5. Political parties are capitalized, but schools of political thought are not, i.e. the Labour Party, the Conservative government, but communism, fascism, conservatism, socialism (except Nazism, which should be capitalized).

Figures

Dates should be given in the form 7 December 1998; 1994–98 and the 1990s.

Numbers should be spelled out from one to ten then given as numerals.

Notes

Bibliographic citations are provided in short notes (footnotes), supplemented by a list of references which includes all works cited in the notes.
